

Bibliography

1. Gellner E. Nation and Nationalism, Blackwell, 1983.
2. Norbu D. Culture and Politics of Third World Nationalism, Routledge, 1992.
3. Seheffer G., Esman M. and Weiner W. Modern Diaspora in Internaional Politics, 1985.
4. Weiner M. Population and Development Review 11 No.3, September, 1985.
5. Zolberg A. Escape from Violence, Oxford University Press, 1989.
6. International Journal of Refugee Law , Volume 6 No.2, 1994.
7. Committee for Publicity of People's Struggle in Monland Newsletter NO1 V.12
8. Committee for Publicity of People's Struggle in Monland Newsletter NO12 V.3 (October 1994)
9. Bangkok Post : Burma tops border issues (Bhanravee Tansubhapol) (10 December 1995)
10. EIU Country Profile : Myanmar 1994-1995
11. Bangkok Post : Nation awaits result of PM's Burma visit (20 March 1996)
12. Michael Smithies : The Mons ,Siam Society
13. Bangkok Post : Mon new year best for decades (13 Febuary 1996)
14. The Nation : Security chiefs warn Hous ponel ofBurmese threat (22 March 1996)
15. The Nation : Does SLORC now have edge over Thailand ? (Yindee Lertcharoenchok) (16 January 1996)

16. The Nation : A Comment on Burmese refugees : In search of a safe haven (Prof. Vitit Muntabhorn)
17. The Nation : (26 May 1995)
18. The Defence of Thailand 1994 (Ministry of Defense)
19. Committee for Publicity of People's Struggle in Monland Newsletter NO1 V.12
20. The Nation : Does SLORC now have edge over Thailand ? (Yindee Lertcharoenchok) (16 January 1996)
21. Siam Post (Page 15) (March 13, 1994)
22. The Nation ( Feb 16 1996 )

ศูนย์วิทยทรัพยากร
จุฬาลงกรณ์มหาวิทยาลัย

Panutat Yodkaew was born in Bangkok, Thailand in 1969. He received his B.A. in history and Western languages (French and German) from Thammasat University. Central to his interest are historical sociology and sociological history. At present, he works as diplomat at the Department of American and South Pacific Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

ศูนย์วิทยทรัพยากร
จุฬาลงกรณ์มหาวิทยาลัย