(a) the court of petty session nearest to the place where the person resides or intends to reside; or

(b) the court of petty sessions it deems most convenient in the circumstances, to be the supervising court in respect of the order

(2) A court of petty sessions specified in an order as referred to in subsection (1) or, where another court of petty sessions is substituted for that court pursuant to section 22, the court so substituted, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the supervising court in respect of the order.

Place, ect., and time for presentation for work.

9. Where a court makes a community service order, it shall specify in the order-

(3) The failure of a court to cause a copy of a community service order to be served on or sent to a person pursuant to subsection (2) does not invalidate the order.

Assignment of officer by the Commission.

13. (1) On receipt of a copy of a community service order sent to it under section 12 (2), the Commission shall assign a probation officer or, where the regulations so provide, a person other than a probation officer, in respect of the administration of the order.

whichever first occurs.

Extension of duration of community service order.

17. Where, on the application of the person in respect of whom a community service order is in force or the assigned officer, it appears to the supervising court that it would, having regard to circumstances that have arisen since the order was made, be in the interests of justice to do so, the court may extend the period during which the order remains in force.

Am. 1979 No. 197, s. 3 (a)

18. the court shall cause notice of the extension or revocation to be served on the assigned officer and (if that court is not the supervising court) sent to the clerk of the supervising court.

Substitution of new supervising court.

22. (1) Where the supervising court is satisfied that a person in respect of whom a community service order is in force has changed or proposes to change his place of residence or that other sufficient reasons exist, so that some other court of petty sessions is or will be the court of petty sessions nearest to the new place of residence of the person or the most convenient in the circumstances of the case, the supervising court may, by order, amend the order by substituting that other court of petty sessions as the supervising court in place of the court in place of the court originally appointed.

(2) A court shall not make an order under subsection (1) unless the court-

- (a) has been notified by the assigned officer that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the area in which the person in respect of whom the community service order is in force resides or intends to reside to perform community service work under a community service order; and

(3) Where a community service order is amended under subsection (1), the court making the amending order shall send to the clerk of the new supervising court referred to in the amending order a copy of the amending order together with such documents and information relating to the person in respect of whom and the offence in respect of which the community service order is in force as it considers likely to be of assistance to that court.

Breach of requirements of, or relating to, community service order.

23. (1) If a person in respect of whom a community service order is in force fails, without reasonable cause or excuse, to comply with the order or with any requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations in respect of the order, he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) in respect of a community service order shall be brought in accordance with section 24

24. If it appears on complaint in writing to a justice that a person in respect of whom a community service order is in force has failed, without reasonable cause or excuse, to comply with the order or with any requirement made by or under this Act or the regulations in respect of the order, the justice may issue a summons requiring the person to appear before the supervising court at the time specified in the summons or may, if the complaint is in writing and on oath, issue a warrant for the arrest of the person and directing that he be brought before the supervising court as soon as possible after his arrest.

Conviction for breach-how dealt with.

Am. 1979 No. 194, s. 3 (b)

- (a) without prejudice to the continuation in force of the community service order, impose on the person a fine not exceeding $250;
- (b) where the order was made by a court of petty sessions-
